F. P. BLAIR, JR.,

OF MISSOURI.

Democratic Electors.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE,

COL. FRANK WOLOFORD, of Casey,

HON. JESSE D. BRITT, of Carroll.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

The Frankfort Standard says—

"The distinguished Union soldier" who heads the Ku Klux Klan is now led by gentlemen of the most respectable names in Kentucky. Mr. Thomas E. Bramlette, leading the murderer of John Brown, has joined the Klan, and now leads the Union hosts to battle to the death. The Klan is now so favorably known it is useless for any man to oppose them. They are now more numerous than the soldiers who followed him to the front, and secure great bargains."

FUNERAL POSTPONEMENT.

The Louisville Courier says—

"The Postponement of Andrew Jackson will take place at 8 A.M. Saturday morning instead of yesterday afternoon as heretofore announced."

DIED.

MURKIN.—At the residence of Right. J. Denney, on Washington Street, Louisville, Ky., on Saturday evening, at 8 P.M., Harry H. Williams, 60 years of age.

His funeral will take place this afternoon, at 1 P.M., at St. John's Church, corner of Clay and Washington Streets.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythias.

We ask that a single case of the sort,

if they could, in order that a recurrence of such disgraceful proceedings might be prevented.

We ask them to name a single vice,

or a single party, that his rights

might be vindicated, and to name a single person in order that he might be exposed and punished.

If they know instances of such wrongs, it was their duty as Kentuckians to expose them, and to stand up against the party responsible.

If they could not prove these wholesale accusations against the mass of their fellow-citizens, we presumed that they would take pleasure in withdrawing them.

We are glad to find that they have granted our request, and sorry to find that they are not willing to release them. Unable to make out a case against a single person, they are still unwilling to lose the political advantage of incriminating the majority with vague and general accusations, which they can only do by name the party.

The position which they take is a very compromise between a manly retraction and the shame of retreating injurious statements

of which they can furnish no proof.

The "Kentucky Contributor" of the Circular

admittedly replies in this manner:

"It is strange that the most powerful force

of Democrats threatening the free of Union men and arrays, are to be found on the side of the Confederacy."

After this admission he makes a labored effort to establish the existence of a sort of

"sodality tyranny," which prevents men from voting as they please in Kentucky. He then makes this infernal and shadowy bogus

excuse for retarding his cry of proscription and conviction, even builds upon it the assertion that the laboring classes have sold their votes for bread, and that the mo-chines and business men sold their votes for the credit of the editorial fraternity, don't be surprised.

DRIVES TO THE SUBURBS.

We invite attention to the communication of W. H. Walker, Esq., which will be found in another column. It will repay reading.
